Winter Session January, 1998

This folder describes credit courses offered on the Harbor Campus by UMass Boston's Division of Continuing Education during the January, 1998 winter session. These courses are open to students currently enrolled at UMass Boston, students at other institutions, as well as persons who wish to explore university life for the first time. The University assumes that students registering for undergraduate courses will accurately assess their ability to do college work. Students should be aware that they are responsible for meeting prerequisites for certain courses as well as maintaining academic retention standards and observing all other academic regulations outlined in the UMass Boston Catalog.

How to Register

For your convenience, the following registration options are available:

Telephone:
Call 617 287-7916 during the following hours: Monday through Thursday 8:30am-6:00pm; Friday 9:00am-4:00pm. Fill out the registration form on the preceding page and be ready to refer to it during your call. Payment must be made by MasterCard, VISA or Discover Card.

Fax
Fax your completed registration form to 617 287-7922, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Payment must be made by MasterCard, VISA or Discover Card.

Mail
Send completed Registration Form and appropriate fees (MasterCard, VISA, Discover Card or check) to:

UMass Boston
Continuing Education, Box C
100 Morrissey Boulevard
Boston, MA 02125-3393

In Person
Bring your completed registration form with appropriate fees to the Continuing Education Registration Center (Wheatley Hall, 2nd floor, Room 211) during the following hours: Monday through Thursday 8:30am-6:00pm, Friday 9:00am-4:00pm. Payment may be made by MasterCard, Visa, Discover Card, check or cash. (Please note: there is a special procedure for cash payment. Call 617 287-7914 for details.)

Since Continuing Education classes often fill up quickly, it is advisable to register early.

Fees

The undergraduate course fee is $135 per credit; graduate courses are $150 per credit. All students must pay a $20 registration fee and a $10 educational services fee; non-matriculated students also pay a $3 transcript fee. (Transcripts are not mailed automatically; you must request one in writing.) To avoid paying a $25 late fee, you must register—by mail, telephone, fax, or in person—by December 16. Checks returned unprocessed by our bank will be assessed a $25 returned check fee.

Academic Calendar

Registration begins	Dec. 1 (M)
Registration deadline	Dec. 16 (Tu)
Classes begin	Jan. 5 (M)
Add/drop deadline	Jan. 9 (F)
Holiday	Jan. 19 (M)
Pass/Fail and Withdrawal deadline	Jan. 13 (Tu)
Classes end	Jan. 23 (F)
Final exams	Jan. 23 (F)

Note: Fridays and Saturdays may be used as makeup days in the event of cancellations.

Adding and Dropping Courses

Students may add or drop courses on or before January 9. To add or drop a course by telephone, call 617 287-7916. To add or drop a course in person, by mail or by fax, use a Change of Registration Form (available from the Continuing Education Registration Center, Wheatley Hall, second floor, room 211). If a student wishes to register for or add a course after the first class meeting, the appropriate form (Registration Form/ Change of Registration Form) must be signed by the instructor(s) of the course(s) added, and returned to the Registration Center before the add/drop deadline (no signature is required when a course is being dropped).

Withdrawing from Courses

A student who withdraws after the add/drop deadline will receive a grade of "W" for that course. Withdrawal forms are available at the Continuing Education office. Failure to submit a withdrawal form before 6:00pm on the last day of the withdrawal period will result in a grade of "F." A student withdrawing from a course does not receive a refund.

Refunds

A student who drops a course will be granted a refund according to the schedule below. Non-attendance does not constitute dropping a course. Students must file a Change of Registration/Refund Request Form at the Continuing Education Registration Center (Wheatley Hall, second floor, room 211). The registration fees are refunded only if all of the student's courses have been canceled by the University.

Dropped on/before day of first class meeting*	100%
Dropped before second class meeting	90%
Dropped before third class meeting	50%
Dropped after third class meeting	No refund

*For those classes that begin after 6:00pm, a 100% refund will be granted if the class is dropped before 12:00 noon on the following day.

How to Learn More

UNDERGRADUATE COURSES

Africana Studies

BlkSty 100
Introduction to Black Literature
●
This survey course examines the writings of some of the black Americans who have made unique contributions to the African-American literary tradition. The course explores these writings in terms of their socio-historical context, making use of analyses of character, plot, and symbolism. It gives particular attention to the writers' roles as social critics. Among the writers whose work may be considered are Frederick Douglass, Jean Toomer, Zora Neale Hurston, Richard Wright, Leroi Jones, Ernest Gaines, George Jackson, Alice Walker, and Toni Morrison.
MTuWThF 8:30-11:00am, W-1-057, Mr Azuonye, 3 Credits, Sched No 600016

American Studies

AmSt 205
The Fifties
●
The course considers the culture of the 1950s, including writers like Kerouac, Ellison, Hemingway, and Miller, and phenomena such as the Cold War, McCarthyism, and the "other-directedness" that supposedly dominated the period. The work of social scientists like Riesman and Galbraith is considered, as well as that of novelists and playwrights.
Distribution Area: Historical and Cultural Studies.
MTuWThF 11:30am-2:00pm, W-1-054, Mr Danker, 3 Credits, Sched No 600006

AmSt C206
The Sixties
●
The course focuses on protest and the role of youth. Who protested and why? Was the phenomenon of the sixties an aberration or part of a larger radical tradition in America? What was the impact on the seventies? Readings are drawn from the works of participants in the student, black, feminist, and peace protest movements, from the intellectuals who defended and attacked them, and from the growing body of retrospective, analytic, and historical literature which attempts to explain what really happened in that tumultuous decade. Films are shown when appropriate.
Distribution Area: Historical and Cultural Studies.
MTuWTh 6:00-9:00pm, W-1-031, Mr Atwood, 3 Credits, Sched No 600004

Anthropology

Anth 102
Introduction to Archaeology and Biological Anthropology
●
The study of the biological and cultural heritage of humans. Topics include primate and human evolution, evolution of prehistoric cultures, and human adaptation and variation.
Distribution Area: Natural Sciences.
MTuWTh 6:00-9:00pm, W-1-055, Ms Todd, 3 Credits, Sched No 600122

Anth 480A
The Mystique of Dreams: Cross-Cultural Explorations in Dreaming
●
This course will examine a universal experience of human beings, dreams and dreaming. Our focus will be the interchange between dreams and culture. We will treat dreams as variable elements of culture and experience, rather than universal elements of individual or group psychology. We will study accounts of dreaming and their significance in a variety of cultures, including the many perspectives that constitute our own culture. However, we will also examine research into sleeping and dreaming as physiological processes, and the tendency for many cultures to link dreams with the sacred and religion. We will utilize these three perspectives to examine our own individual dreams, which will include keeping a dream journal, analyzing our own beliefs (individual and cultural) about dreaming, and exercises in dream control and awareness.
MTuWThF 8:30-11:00am, W-2-127, Mr Pasto, 3 Credits, Sched No 600136

Art

Art 281
Drawing I

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Winter Light On Nantucket

January 12-23
This workshop will concentrate on the techniques of watercolor, casein paint, and gouache on paper. Projects will revolve around formal issues of color, particularly as they relate to the landscape and winter light in Nantucket. A daily visual journal will be required, and in addition to scheduled studio time, students will be expected to work on their own. A final project consisting of no less than six pieces will be required. Upon successful completion of the program, students will receive three credits in Art.

Students taking this course will be housed at the UMass Field Station on Nantucket. Students are responsible for arranging their own transportation to Nantucket. An orientation session with Professor Chiesa will be held prior to the start of the course.

Prerequisite: Two studio courses or permission of the instructor.

Note: The fee for this three-credit program is $525. This includes all course, service and registration fees, as well as housing on Nantucket. It does not include transportation to or from Nantucket.

Winter Session in Cuernavaca, Mexico

December 27-January 24

Program I
Spanish and Culture
●
Students interested in studying Spanish at the elementary, intermediate, or advanced level can develop conversational and writing proficiency and an appreciation of Mexican culture through this special program in Cuernavaca, Mexico. Up to six credits. For more information, call 617 287-7915.

Program II
Mexico Today: Politics and Society
●
With its long and rich history, shaped by the encounter and merger of different cultures, Mexico offers a rich panorama of contrasts. Through first-hand observations, students will gain a lively appreciation of the changes that are shaping Mexico today, analyzing their experience within the broader context of political, cultural, social and economic issues. Upon successful completion of the program, participants receive six credits in Political Science (PolSci 377A and 480A) or Latin American Studies (LatAm 478A and 485A). For information, call 617 287-7915.

Television Comedy Writing and Acting

●
In this unique six-credit program, students will experience a comprehensive overview of situation comedy from both sides of the camera. The program's goal will be to create a well-written television production, bringing together the students' own characters, formats, and comedic situations.
